Introduction to Read Write Inc.

Reading changes everything

Teach a child to read and keep that child reading and we will change everything.

And I mean everything.

Handwriting phrases for helping your child to form letters

This works best if your child practises for a short time every day.

1. Show the picture side and air-write as you say the phrase.
2. Ask your child to practise in the air with you.
3. Using a sharp pencil and sat at a table, encourage your child to have a go.
4. Praise your child for their efforts.

Pin it on

Introduction
In this story, some children are playing a game called 'Pin the tail on the donkey'. They are blindfolded, and need to attach the tail to the right place. Let's see how they do!

"Snatchosaurus is a very dangerous dinosaur," she said.
"So it's obvious! We need to find an even more dangerous dinosaur to catch him!"

"But where can we find a dinosaur like that?" asked Stegosaurus, cautiously.

"We will make one!" came the reply.

So they got out their scissors, and their pencils, and their paper, and their card, and their paints, and their sticky tape ... and they made ... a Catchasnatchosaurus!
And the famous Snatchosaurus was never seen again!

Virtual Classroom films

How do I use the Virtual Classroom?

- 1. Set aside 10 minutes to watch a film with your child each day.
- 2. Find a quiet space for your child to watch the film on a laptop or tablet.
- 3. Praise your child as they join in with the lesson – make it fun!

The more they practise using these films, the quicker they'll learn to read.

What can I do?

- 1. Use pure sounds rather than letter names.
- 2. Use Fred Talk to help your child to read and spell words.
- 3. Listen to your child read their Storybook every day.
- 4. Watch the Virtual Classroom films together.
- 5. Read stories to your child every day.

Any questions?

Reading feeds the imagination, it expands horizons and offers new and exciting ways of seeing and making sense of our lives and of the world around us.
