The Spring Partnership Trust – Knowledge Organiser

Geography Focus	Locational knowledge - Kenya (Nairobi)	Year 2	Summer

What? (Key Knowledge)

Kenya	Located to the east of Africa
Capital city	Nairobi
weather	Because Kenya is close the equator, it has 2 wet seasons and 2 dry seasons.
What are the environmental threats in Kenya	• Habitat loss and animal extinction • Plastic pollution • Increased risk of drought • Air pollution from vehicles
Compare and contrast to the UK	The UK and Kenya have different weather patterns and seasons. They both have busy capital cities. They both face problems from climate change.

What? (Key vocab)

Spelling	Definition
Country	A nation with its own government. Example: England, Kenya.
Continent	A large land mass, usually made up of a group of countries. Example: Europe, Africa, Asia
Kenya	A country in Africa.
Capital city -	A capital is a city where a region's government is located.
rural	The countryside
urban	Busy cities
Equator	An imaginary line in the middle of the world that shows the widest part of the sphere.
Human features/ geography	Features created by humans
Physical features/ geography	Features created by the earth.

Diagrams and Symbols