GAME DESIGN Afterschool Club

At Jam Coding, our goal is to help improve children's digital skills. Does your child enjoy playing games? Children will learn to use their gaming experience and imagination to develop their own unique game. This course will take children through all the steps that real game developers use to create games. They will design characters, add backgrounds and use code to develop their own 2D game using game development software. At the end of the course, all children will receive a certificate and one team will receive a trophy!
