Dear Parents/Carers,

I hope you and your families are all safe and well. I will be sending a weekly email to check in and see how everyone is doing.

I've written a short message below for the children as I know this is an odd time for them and some said last week that they would enjoy hearing from me. If the children would like to, I would gladly welcome any replies from them about what they have been up to the shared email address below.

If you do have any problems or questions about the home learning, please do email and we'll get back to you as soon as possible. Our new Year 3 email address is Year3shared@hayes-pri.bromley.sch.uk so you can contact us directly rather than through the admin account.

Thanks,

Miss Woolley

Message for the children:

Morning 3W Rockstars!

I hope you're all well and have had a good week so far! It's been quite strange working at home and I'm missing you all which is why I thought I'd send you an email.

Even though I'm not at school this week, I've taken part in the Joe Wicks PE lesson on Youtube each day which has created lots of giggles in my house! After I've replied to emails and planned some work for all of you, I've been doing some nice relaxing things too. I've started a new book and I even went for a run today (now you all know how much Miss Woolley hates running) but I have set myself a challenge of trying to run once a day and read at least one book a week whilst we aren't in school.

Can any of you set yourself a challenge to try and achieve for the next few weeks? It could be about anything, it doesn't have to be to do with school! My nephew is taking part in the 30 day Lego challenge take a look at the attachment for this as I know some of you will LOVE it. Below I have put a picture of what he made yesterday, he is in Year 3 just like you and I think what he made is pretty impressive. He tells me it is a rollercoaster.

Please feel free to send me some replies and let me know how you're getting on with your learning and about any other things that you have been getting up to. I'd love to hear from you! I'll send you all another email next week to see how're you doing and to let you know how my week has been.

From,

Miss Woolley
